VIP and Business Lounges

We know that pre- and post-flight facilities are just as important as the flight itself. Fast Immigration and Customs control, good coffee and pleasant silence, in other words, total comfort are what we aim to provide.

CATERING

Catering is an integral part of a comfortable flight. Often the most important thoughts come while relaxing during a meal, therefore the importance of quality and mouthwatering food should not be underestimated. We carefully deliver catering from the best restaurants in any city, ensuring you of the highest standard in in-flight meals.

Transfer and Accommodation

Fast and timely transfers leave you free to work on the other details of your flight. We enjoy partnerships with many companies, thereby offering the most price-competitive and smooth transfer services.

Comfortable rest for the crew is a very important part of successful future flight performance.

Being assured of our efforts to organize your perfect accommodation is added peace of mind.

The background of the slide is a grayscale photograph of an airport tarmac. A large commercial aircraft is visible on the left, with its tail fin and wing extending across the frame. In the foreground, a fuel truck is positioned, with a fuel hose connected to the aircraft's wing. A person is visible on the fuel truck, operating the hose. The overall scene is hazy and serves as a backdrop for the text.

FUEL SUPPLY

Aviation fuel services provision has always been our priority. We have established a wide network of service providers, and are able to provide you with the most competitive prices in Russia and CIS. We provide services to several segments of the aviation industry, including but not limited to:

- Major and regional airlines;
- Freight and cargo companies
- Corporations, airports and municipalities,
- Fixed base operators, helicopters,
- Military and governmental state flights;

Our fuel team target for the best deals with fuel vendors, and have exclusive connection with FBO and airport authorities. This allows us to offer competitive rates for jet fuel reselling within our vast network.

As a fuel provider we render high quality services based on IATA Fuel standards. With the help of our experience and proactivity, we are able to guide our customers to the best price alternative, giving personal attention to ensure the success of every flight.
