

XOJET®

Designed for speed

CITATION X

The XOJET Citation X's combination of speed, range, and altitude makes it not only the most advanced jet in the air, but also one of the most efficient. Powered by massive Rolls-Royce engines, the XOJET Citation X reduces the journey from Los Angeles to New York to approximately four hours - covering a mile every six seconds. With coast-to-coast range and efficiency, the XOJET Citation X can serve all of your regional and transcontinental needs.

CITATION X

Cabin Experience

XOJET®

FLY BEAUTIFULLY

Inside the Citation X's cabin—more sleek and aerodynamic than any other private aircraft in its class—you'll find comfortable leather club chairs, unlimited Wi-Fi Internet access, and a fully stocked galley with microwave oven. Stay entertained with wide-screen LCD monitors, DVD/CD/MP3 entertainment center and an integrated digital sound experience. The Citation X's defining feature is its speed, reaching 700 mph at 51,000 ft maximum cruise altitude.
