

CITATION XLS G-LXWD

The Cessna Citation Excel family of business jets is known for their high-speed performance and outstanding cabin comfort. The Citation XLS is one of the best-selling business jets ever built, with the ability to operate out of smaller airports while still offering the comfort and amenities of a midsize jet. The cabin provides ample room for up to seven passengers – and enough height to stand up in.

OVERVIEW

The Citation XLS provides seating for up to eight passengers. Its interior provides a comfortable setting to conduct business with a centre club layout. With the largest baggage compartment in its class, The Citation XLS ensures that you will not have to sacrifice the amount of luggage carried, for the flexibility provided by executive aviation.

The XLS offers a midsize business jet cabin where people can stand freely and move about with ease. A generous width of 66 inches accommodates six extra-wide, fully reclining leather seats for optimal comfort. It also features a full refreshment center and the largest baggage compartment in its class.
